MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: 21 July Chiefs of Police Conference on Terrorism

On 7 July I telephoned HPSCI Chief Counsel Mike O'Neil and Acting SSCI Chief Counsel Dan Finn to advise them of the upcoming conference. Based on a previous conversation I had with Dewey Clarridge, I made the following points to O'Neil and Finn: (a) the DCI and D/FBI have tendered joint written invitations to 40 U.S. metropolitan police chiefs to attend the one-day conference to exchange views on the nature and extent of the foreign and domestic terrorist threats; (b) no classified operational information will be discussed; and (c) the major objective of session will be a solicitation to the chiefs by Bob Magee to recommend any interested officers under their command who may wish to apply to the Agency for staff openings in the counterterrorist field.

O'Neil and Finn expressed no objection to the idea. Since Latimer and McMahon were not available, O'Neil and Finn said they would ensure that the word was passed along.
